

...and these are some of the questions they are asking us...

- What are our climate risks and opportunities today and how might these change in the future?
- What are the direct and indirect impacts to our business model?
- How do we quantify the financial impact?
- What are the evolving climate regulations and how should we respond?
- Will climate change impact my ability to raise finance?
- Will climate change impact the cost of insurance in the longer-term?
- How can we capitalise on opportunities and remain competitive as our company transitions to the low carbon economy?
- What risk transfer mechanisms can be used to protect my business from climate impacts?
